

Conway, AR Hotel Welcomes New General Manager and Director of Sales

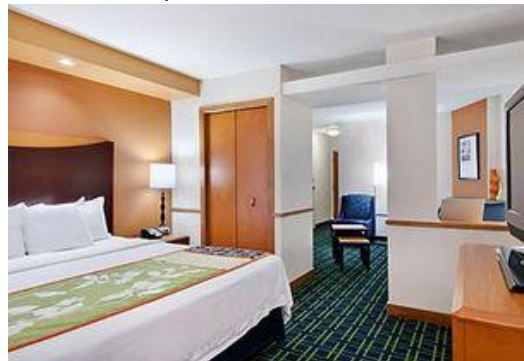

Mote and Sternberg Add Experience and Expertise to the Conway Team

CONWAY, AR--(Marketwire - Jan 23, 2012) - The Fairfield Inn & Suites Conway is proud to announce and welcome Renée Mote and Mary Sternberg as the property's new General Manager and Director of Sales, respectively. Mote will be responsible for property management, operations and administration, while Sternberg will take responsibility for driving revenue for the Conway Regional Medical Center hotel.

A graduate of Purdue University's Hospitality and Tourism Management program, Mote brings years of hospitality experience to the table, having started her career as a housekeeper at the age of 15. She comes to the Fairfield Inn and Suites Conway from the Courtyard by Marriott in Downtown Little Rock, where she spent the past six years in Sales, Guest Services and as the Assistant General Manager. "This is a great opportunity, and the logical next step in my career," Mote said. "I look forward to making a positive impact on our employees, who will make the same positive impact on our guests."

With over 20 years hospitality experience in Central Arkansas -- including 10 years in sales for Marriott brand properties -- Sternberg brings local know-how to her new position as Director of Sales. Previously, she was also the General Manager of a Fairfield Inn, and Market Sales Manager, responsible for four hotels -- two in Little Rock, and two in Memphis, TN. "This is a good fit for me," Sternberg said of her new position. "I quickly realized that I've joined a family that shares the same values that I have."

Both Mote and Sternberg are excited to join the Fairfield family, and the community of Conway. "Conway has some of the top corporations represented in their community," Mote continued, "and we are glad to be joining one of them. The people of Conway know their hospitality!"
